PRIVACY NOTICE YOUR DATA MATTERS

1 INTRODUCTION

This privacy notice advises employees, workers, self-employed staff and/or consultants, governors and volunteers of the Trust's data protection responsibilities on the collection and processing of their personal information.

Bradgate Education Partnership collects and process your personal data to assist in the running of the Trust and to manage the employment relationship of, or otherwise manage, those who are engaged to work or perform services for us.

We are committed to being transparent about how we collect and use that data and to meeting our data protection obligations.

We are required to explain how and why we collect such data and what we do with that information. This notice will also provide information as to what you can do about your personal information that is held and processed with us. At Bradgate Education Partnership, we respect your need for privacy and protect any personal information, including but not limited to any 'personal data' defined in the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 that you share with us. Our practice with respect to use of your personal information is as set forth below in this privacy policy.

2 WHAT WE NEED

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the Trust is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the Trust will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed.

Where consent is required, the Trust will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

The personal data we hold regarding you can include, but is not limited to, information such as:

- Records of any reasonable adjustments.
- Equal opportunities monitoring information.

3 WHY WE NEED IT

We process data relating to those we employ to work at, or otherwise engage to work or support the Trust. We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements set out in Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR, UK employment law and to keep our pupils safe.

There are several reasons why we hold, process and share individuals' personal data, the lawful reasons for processing personal data include:

- Consent.
- For the performance of a contract.
- To comply with a legal obligation.
- To protect the vital interests of the individual or another person.
- For a task carried out in the public interest.
- For a legitimate interest of the Trust or one of the organisations it shares data with (e.g. legal adviser) except where those rights are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection.

Sometimes the handling of your personal data falls within several of the above lawful grounds. The purpose of processing this data is to assist in the running of the Trust, including to:

- Enable individuals to be paid.
- Facilitate safe recruitment.
- Support the effective performance management of staff.
- Improve the management of workforce data across the sector.
- Improve the management of workforce data across the sector.
- Inform our recruitment and retention policies.
- Allow better financial modelling and planning.
- Enable ethnicity and disability monitoring.
- Support the work of the Trust Teachers' Review Body.

4 WHAT WE DO WITH IT

Your personal data may be shared internally with other members of staff in order for them to perform their roles. This can include sharing personal data with the senior leadership team, governors, Trustees, HR (including payroll), your line manager, managers and ICT staff. We may also share your personal data with third parties. This can include when obtaining background checks as part of safer recruitment guidelines, pre-employment references and criminal records checks from the DBS.

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment. The staff files are kept within a locked cupboard. You are able to have access to your file at any time to ensure that all information about you is up to date.

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. Where it is legally required or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with but not restricted to:

Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and information about head teacher performance and staff dismissals

The Department for Education - to meet our legal obligations to share information linked to performance data.

Your family or representatives - to carry out our public task in the event of an emergency.

Other staff members - to carry out our public tasks, for example having access to your Trust email address so that information can be shared effectively.

Our regulator Ofsted, in order to comply with our public task.

Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as payroll.

Central and local government to complete the legal obligation for things such as the workforce census.

Auditors - coming under a legal obligation, we may be asked from auditors about financial information relating to the Trust.

Survey and research organisations- to meet our legal obligation in relation to ‘freedom of information’ requests.

Trade unions and associations- to carry out our public task in light of any key discussions within Trust linked to disciplinary/capability procedures or for events such as redundancy.

Security organisations - in order to keep our Trust secure and under the lawful basis of public task, we pass on certain staff member information so that they can be contacted if necessary (such as the caretaker).

Health and social welfare organisations to carry out our public task in line with our attendance management policy with organisations such as occupational health.

Police forces, courts, tribunals - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns or to carry out our public task in relation to a tribunal.

Employment and recruitment agencies - to meet the public task of supplying requested references.

The governors - to carry out our public task within the Trust and remain accountable to them for finance and personnel issues.

5 HOW LONG DO WE KEEP IT?

All Personal data is stored in line with the Trust's GDPR Data Protection Policy. In accordance with the GDPR, the Trust does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected and in line with our retention statement.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our retention policy which currently states that we will keep it for five years for reasons such as: fulfilling a reference request.
